Synopsis

Guest Lecture on "NET-SET Coaching in Life Sciences" was jointly organized by the IQAC and Department of Zoology and microbiology on Tuesday 27th January 2026. The main aim to organize this guest lectures is to aware the students of life sciences of the different competitive examinations in Life Science. Many of the students put so much effort to prepare and take these types of examinations but not all get the success, The main reason for this is that they do not get proper guidance about the examination. That's why we have decided to organize the guest lectures and invite the best teacher of life sciences. We had invited resource person for the lectures, Mr. Aditya Nagvekar (M.Sc. NET-JRF, SET, GATE). Dr. Suvarna Pol Head, Department of Zoology welcomed the resource persons and gave brief information about the program. The resource person guided our participants on topic physiology of excretion of Life sciences and also cleared different doubts of participants about the competitive examinations. Ms. Rani Kate proposed the vote of thanks. All the faculty of the zoology and microbiology department are actively participated in this workshop.
