Synopsis (75-100 words)

Balwant College, Vita, Department of Botany in collaboration with lead college activity has organized a one-day workshop on Mushroom Cultivation. In this workshop, 92 students have participated. The workshop began with an inauguration by Mr. Sanket Kumbhar (Owner of Sunrise Organic Food, Palus.) and Mr. Shubham Salunkhe (Owner of Sahyadri Mushrooms, Dhangaon). The first session is devoted to plenary lectures on the Introduction and history of Mushroom and Entrepreneurship skills in Mushroom Cultivation. In the afternoon session, hands-on training program was arranged for students at the laboratory of the Botany department. In this session, each student has prepared spawn and filled their beds. The process of mushroom harvesting, processing (drying and powder formation), storage, and marketing strategies were discussed with students. Light has been given on budget for starting mushroom cultivation as a small-scale industry. Mushroom products like- Biscuits, pickles, Soup powder, and dried as well as fresh mushrooms were exhibited in the workshop. After successful completion of the training, students were distributed certificates of participation. Dr. Rohit Mane proposed a vote of thanks and finely workshop was concluded with the permission of the president of the program. This program has been held under the guidance of Principal Dr. V. S. Shivankar, and Mr. D. T. Deokate Vice-Principal of the college. Dr. S. M. Shendage, Head of the department and Coordinator of the program, Organizing Secretary Mrs. Prajekta Koli of the event, and all departmental colleagues have made efforts to make the workshop into grand success.

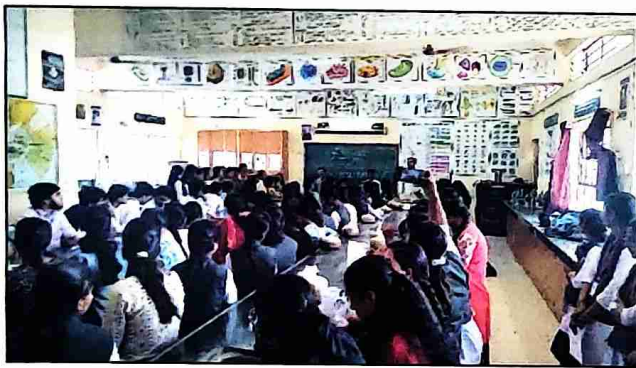

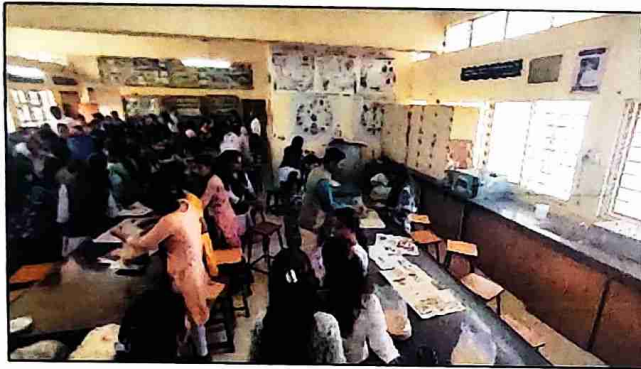

Objectives	Outcomes
To provide basic knowledge on mushroom cultivation. To know basic requirements, significance and profitability of the mushroom business. How to become successful entrepreneur.	Students are actively participated in the event, by making their own beds. Actively involved in discussion forum.
